

National Citizens Police Academy Association
2009 Annual Conference
May 5-8, 2009 ~ Anchorage, Alaska
Hosted by Anchorage Police Citizen Academy Alumni Association

CONFERENCE COURSES: TENTATIVE SCHEDULE ~ SUBJECT TO CHANGES

Pre Conference Course

- Women's Self Defense Course (6 hour course teaches ladies how to protect themselves against predators)

Official Conference Field Trips: (fees apply)

- Bird Creek ATV Safety Course
Ride the trails of the Chugach Foothills with Alaskan officer(s) who use actually use ATV's to perform their sworn duties.

Foundation Core Courses:

- How to Begin a Citizen's Academy
- How to Begin an Alumni Association
- Maintaining a Citizen's Police Academy
- Maintaining an Alumni Association
- Panel Discussion: How to Host a Conference (Dick Powers, Diana Lawler, Sussie Adlawan, Jim Kaletka, Char McClelland)
- VIPS ~ Volunteers in Public Service

Above courses offered pre conference as well as during the official conference dates.

Continuing Educational Tract:

- CPA Coordinator Certification
- Severe Weather Survival – It's Not a Fashion Statement!
- Search and Rescue in Alaska – From Avalanches to Fifty Below Zero (A to Z!)
- Village Public Safety Officers – Policing While Honoring Tribal Traditions
- Internet Crimes Against Children – Not in Our Town
- Identity Theft – It's After 10PM ~ Do You Know What Your Credit Cards Are Doing?
- Cyber Crime – You're Not As Anonymous As You Think...
- State Troopers in Alaska – Law in the Last Frontier
- Alaska Coast Guard Marine Safety Seminar – Policing Alaska's Remote Waters (conducted on board a vessel in Prince William Sound)

All course above will be offered twice during the conference except the Alaska Coast Guard Marine Safety Seminar.